tendent McChesney.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., January 5.—An election of seeming special significance in its relation to Superintendent S. Rhea McChesney, of the city schools, took place this week, when the City Council elected, three members of the Board of Education, supplanting R. F. Wagnor, who had been the friend of Professor McChesney, and through whose efforts it was agreed to restore description and the superintendent's saiary of $1.400 per annum, after he had worked a year for no cash consideration beyond that of $200 per annum allowed him by the State.

The superintendent cyclently foil pretty secure in his position with Mr. Wagner on the board, but the retiroment of that member puts Professor McChesney, at the mercy of his old one mies, if they should see fit to fight. daring and determined highway robberies in this section of Virginia for many a day, Oscar Davis and John L. Foster, neither of whom has reached his majority, were levid this afternoon for the Campbell, county grand jury, which meets Monday at Rustburg.

R. F. Revely and Thomas W. Evans, farmers, who reside near Concord, Campbell county, are the victims of the alleged hold-up, Mr. Revely having been relieved of $61.65, after being fired at by one of the bandits, and Mr. Evans lost abou $2.

The youths were afrested late yesterday afternoon at Gladstone, and they were brought back to the city last night about 11 o'clock. They were locked up at the City Jail and this morning were turned over to county officials, as the location of the robbery, being two miles from Lynchburg, was outside the pelice Jurisdiction of the local courts. This fiternoon at 4:15 o'clock Special Officer L. H. Brown took the couple to Rustburg, where they will be lodged in the county jail.

This is the third robbery within the past month or six weeks in the victimity of the city, and each time the victim was a tobacco planter going home from the city with money from the sale of privi of his tobacco crop.

At the trial to-day Davis and Foster both denied any knowledge of the sale of part of his tobacco crop.

At the trial to-day Davis and Foster both denied any knowledge of the robbery, and claimed they would have no trouble to account for their whereabouts all during the day.
